Electorate profile: Stirling

Once provided information about the rate of JobSeeker (including Coronavirus Supplement), is the rate what you expected?

If the government is able to provide a better standard of living for people while they try and find employment, it's better for the Australian people.

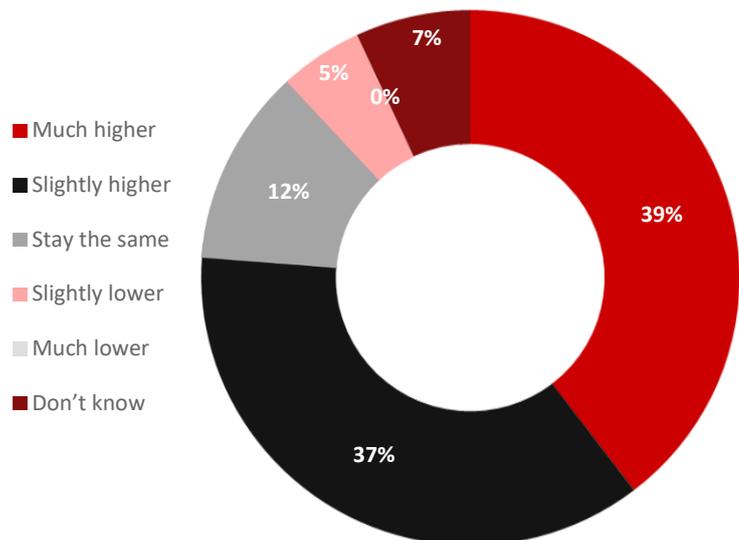

- Stirling resident

Respondents in Stirling think the base rate of JobSeeker should be:

A person on the current amount can't be expected to elevate themselves from that situation as they couldn't afford to house, feed and clothe themselves as well as get transport to job interviews.
