

Child Centred Practice

All services are focused on the needs of children and young people. Where appropriate, they are invited to be part of the resolution process.

Feedback from parents

'Every aspect of the service was appropriate and extremely helpful. I now have a better understanding of how the separation impacts the children. Learning about parenting/relationship styles and patterns was really enlightening.'

'I gained so much knowledge of myself and ways and means of accomplishing productive goals for my children. I believe both parents in a separated family situation should be involved in this service.'

'Happy I attended, it was eye-opening, educational and I learned a lot. Support was great and so was all the information.'

Feedback from children

'It helped me through my troubles and worries.'

'Something new I learned was how kind some people really are, stuff about having a great life.'

'I learned I'm different and that's okay and not to always blame myself.'

Family Law Services

We offer a range of services to assist separated parents and their children to come to terms with a different family situation

Family Is Forever Program

Supporting Children
After Separation

Children's Contact Service

Family Relationship Centres

Family Dispute Resolution

Family Law Counselling

FAMILY LAW SERVICES

Family Law Services employ qualified professionals with expertise in working with separated parents, children and extended family members.

We offer a range of services to support families with family separation/conflict issues.

Family Is Forever Program

Family Is Forever assists parents/caregivers with understanding the impact of conflict on children and young people. The service supports parents/caregivers with skills to manage conflict and communication with the other parent/caregiver, with a focus on the needs of the children.

Supporting Children after Separation

Supporting Children after Separation provides a safe and confidential space for children and young people to explore their feelings about the family situation and learn skills to manage challenges that arise from both conflict and separation.

Children's Contact Service

Children's Contact Service provides a safe, secure and child-focused environment in which children can continue to have a relationship with a parent or family member that they do not live with. Children's Contact Service offers supervised visits and changeovers. Either Family Court Orders or a Parenting Plan/Agreement is required to access this service.

We offer a range of services to support families with family separation/conflict issues

Family Relationship Centres

Family Relationship Centres provide assistance and resources to families in need of support with issues such as conflict and family relationships.

Family Dispute Resolution

Family Dispute Resolution is available to families where there is a conflict in relation to children, to sort out disputes and to develop parenting plans. Children may be included in the Family Dispute Resolution process through meeting with the Child Inclusive Practitioner.

Family Law Counselling

Family Law Counselling helps people with relationship difficulties to better manage their personal or interpersonal issues in relation to children, parenting and family separation.

Fees are associated with some of these services and concessions apply.
