Health Direct 1800 022 222 (Freecall from landlines)

Health Direct is a confidential 24 hour medical advice service. You can talk to a registered nurse for information or referrals. If you have any health concerns just give them a call.

Emergency 000 (Freecall)

You may be asked the following questions when you call 000 for an ambulance:

- The location of the emergency.
- If there is a cross street or landmark.
- A call back phone number.
- The nature of emergency.
- The number of people involved.
- If the patient is conscious or breathing.

Don't Hang Up

The Communications Officer will give you advice over the phone to assist the ambulance paramedics and patient prior to the arrival of the ambulance.

They may also ask you to perform some of the following tasks:

- Turn on front lights if it is dark.
- If it is possible for someone to wait at the front.
- To make sure the door is unlocked and open so the Paramedics can enter.

Please Remember:

- Try and stay calm and speak slowly; an ambulance will soon be on the way.
- If you are in doubt you should phone an ambulance.
